Petersburg Kalsomined by Tigers. Portsmouth Falls on Rocky Mount and Administers Shut-Out Defeat. Both Teams Play Good Ball.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 29.—
Newport News and Norfolk staged another ten-inning game to-day, but unlike those of Thursday and Friday, the Shipbuilders won out. The score was 3 to 2. Barton and Gardinier both pitched well, but Gardinier had the best of it in the pinches. The Tars scored in the first round on a pass to B. Stewart and Lake's double. In the seventh they scored another on a pass to Mace, a balk and Steinbrenner's single. Steinbrenner tried to go to second, but was called out. He protested the decision so violently that Empire Cullen banished him from the park. The Builders scored in the sixth on Smiths double and Walker's single, after two men were down. In the seventh they added another on a pass to Voltz and Gardinier's double. In the tenth Gardinier singled, was forced at second, Bunting put up a foul fly. Smith was purposely walked, but Crist scored Seiglie with a long drive to deep right conter. There were no sensational features.

HOME RUN ON BUNT

PORTSMOUTH, VA., May 29.—Something new in the way of baseball was pulled in Portsmouth to-day, when St. Martin bunted the ball two feet in front of home plate and continued clear around the base for a score before the pill was returned to the pitcher. To add to the gayety of the liffair, he brought another run in thead of him. Hurley, scoring from first base on the same play.

Portsmouth won by a score of 4 to rst base on the same play.

Portsmouth won by a score of 4 to 3, this being the first game this week n which the home team has come out the big end of the horn. Only three with were allowed by each pitcher, and the contest, although played on a sogry diamond, was remarkably quick. Every run scored had an error mixed with it, there being seven miscues tharged against the visitors.

The home-run bunt occurred in the sixth inning, after Hurley had singled. St. Martin sacrificed, the ball dropping it his feet, and Ulrich threw the sphere over first baseman's head into right field. Both men scored, Ulrich missing the return peg from right field. Both men scored, Ulrich missing the return peg from right field, after Hurley had reached home ind St. Martin had passed third base. McCleary pitched for the Truckers, and Teague for the Down Homers. Both ild splendid work, and only the errors made the contest one-sided.
